

Please spread the word...

Dutchess County Veterans Appreciation Day

An event for those who have Honorably served in the Armed Forces and their families.

Saturday, November 7, 2009
12pm to 3pm
The Wallace Center at the Roosevelt Library and Home in Hyde Park

---

Join County Executive William R. Steinhaus and Veterans Service Agency Director Nelson Eddy Rivera, USN (Ret) to pay tribute and say THANK YOU to our Dutchess County Veterans and all those who have served in defense of our great country.

Learn more about all of the services and resources available to veterans and their families from representatives of county, federal, state and local government and non-profit agencies.

The Event Will Feature:

- Medal Presentation at 2pm to several local veterans
- Entertainment and refreshments
- Complimentary admission to the FDR Presidential Library and Museum

The Dutchess County Veterans Service Agency is dedicated to ensuring our county veterans and their families receive all the benefits they are entitled by their Honorable Service to our country.

